

LycoMato[®] Lycopene

Lycopene is the most abundant carotenoid antioxidant compound found in the blood. PureGels[®] LycoMato[®] provides 15 mg of all-natural, Non-GMO lycopene in a one-a-day soft gel formula, the equivalent of 4 to 5 whole tomatoes daily. It contains the most highly concentrated form of lycopene available, naturally extracted from tomatoes. LycoMato[®] is a full spectrum of naturally occurring tomato antioxidants which promotes healthy cardiovascular function for both women and men, and it also supports healthy prostate function for men.* LycoMato[®]-specific studies are now being conducted which are examining LycoMato[®]'s potential role in lowering blood pressure.*
